

12 King's Bench Walk
Seminar Programme 2007

Seizing the Initiative for Insurers

Wednesday 28 February 2007
Arundel House, 13-15 Arundel Street,
Temple Place, London WC2R 3DX

Wednesday 28 March 2007
Bristol Marriott Hotel City Centre, Lower
Castle Street, Bristol, BS1 3AD.

5.30pm - Registration
6.00pm - Seminar
7.30pm - Refreshments

This is a free event

Aims and Objectives

This seminar will illuminate some of the current areas of opportunity for the insurance industry in defending claims. It will therefore be of benefit to solicitors and insurers. The seminar will include an up to date view on the re-awakening topic of credit hire and the opportunities to expand Hale LJ's workplace stress threshold criteria into other areas. The talk on Policy Avoidance will illuminate the opportunities and pitfalls in this key area.

Learning Outcomes

This seminar will update and inform as to upcoming opportunities for insurers. Delegates will benefit from:

- New ideas on the deployment of threshold criteria for workplace stress into other areas;
- Practical advice on credit hire;
- Understanding the problems related to policy avoidance;
- Critical analysis of the opportunities available for insurers to gain the initiative.

CPD Points
1.5

CPD reference
CW/CHRW

Programme

Seizing the Initiative for Insurers
28 February 2007, London
5.30pm – 8.00pm

5.30 pm	Registration Tea & coffee
6.00 pm	Introduction by chair Stephen Worthington QC, 12KBW
6.00 pm	“How hail and hearty can we be about Hale and Hutton? The scope for extension of Baroness Hale’s guidance beyond workplace stress” Henry Charles
6.30 pm	Keeping up to speed with credit hire Tim Petts
7.00 pm	Practical problems on policy avoidance Ronald Walker QC
7.30 pm	Drinks reception and canapés
8.00 pm	Close

To book your place, please complete the attached registration form and return to Amy Hammick, Practice Manager at the address below or by email to hammick@12kbw.co.uk

Important Notes

- While the overall theme of “Seizing the Initiative for Insurers” will remain the same, speakers and sessions are subject to change for the event in Bristol. These will be confirmed early March 07.
- Due to the popularity of these events, attendees may be restricted to 4 delegates from one organisation. We are happy to keep additional names on a reserve list and allocate places subject to free spaces becoming available in the run-up to the seminar.