

Carolyn D'Souza and Charley Turton contribute to 'Occupational Illness Litigation' by Sweet & Maxwell

Carolyn D'Souza and Charley Turton have co-authored the chapter on 'Transfer of Undertakings and Related Issues' in Occupational Illness Litigation, published by Sweet & Maxwell (now available in hard copy and on Westlaw). The chapter guides practitioners through the legislation and authorities relevant to the frequently encountered, and often complex, question of who to sue where there has been a transfer of an undertaking.
