

James Beeton wins 2019 Jonathan Brock QC Memorial Essay Prize

James Beeton was announced the winner of the London Common Law and Commercial Bar Association's annual essay prize at the Association's AGM on Wednesday evening. The topic was "How would you improve or reform our current system for group litigation and other civil proceedings involving multiple parties?".

The essay may be found below:

READ JAMES'S WINNING ESSAY