Anna Symington

Call: 2002

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Fraud, Inquests, Insurance, Public Authority Liability, Costs

Anna acts for both Claimants and Defendants in most personal injury matters. Anna's mainstream personal injury practice is centred around higher value claims and she is particularly experienced in dealing with claims where the Claimant has developed CRPS. A large proportion of her practice involves defending fraudulent personal injury claims, both in Casualty and Motor.

She has been recommended in the legal directories as being "very sharp" and "an excellent advocate."

Anna has a wealth of experience in EL, PL and RTA claims. She is favoured by both Claimants and Defendants for her budgeting experience and ability to deliver a successful outcome at CCMCs.

Anna lives in the West Country and her practice is nationwide.

Personal Injury

---

Anna's areas of expertise are principally:

- Catastrophic injuries (with emphasis on amputation claims)
- CRPS
- Psychiatric and chronic pain cases
- Fraudulent and exaggerated claims
- Employers' liability issues.
- Motor insurance issues.
- Fatal accidents.
- Public liability claims.

Examples of recent/ongoing cases include:

- Representing a Claimant who lost his little and ring fingers in a machine saw. Claim settled for £785,000 at JSM (against QC) with significant allowance for an i-limb
- Representing an elderly Claimant who sustained an above knee amputation and lost capacity after being run

- over by a bus, where the claim settled with a lump sum award and an award of periodical payments being made
- Representing a Motor Insurer at a JSM following a multi vehicle accident on the Isle of Sheppey
  - Representing an employer whose employee had fallen and sustained significant injury in a car park not occupied by them
  - Representing the MOD in a high value claim brought by a member of the armed forces following an accident on a Naval base
  - Representing a Claimant with CRPS where the claim ultimately settled (post JSM against QC) for more than £1.5 million
