

12

King's Bench Walk

Charley Turton

Call: 2017

turton@12kbw.co.uk

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Clinical Negligence, International & Travel, Employment & Discrimination, Fraud, Inquests, Credit Hire

Charley accepts instructions in a variety of matters relating to personal injury including: road traffic claims; employer's liability and public liability cases; clinical negligence claims; international and travel cases and inquests.

Charley is regularly instructed in fast track trials, small claims, CMCs, interim applications and approval hearings. Charley's paperwork practice includes drafting statements of case and advising on both liability and quantum.

Away from chambers Charley enjoys playing football and baking.

Clinical Negligence

Charley has a particular interest in clinical negligence and is knowledgeable on issues of consent, having produced a research paper on this topic during her legal studies. Charley is keen to accept instructions in all aspects of clinical negligence litigation, including drafting statements of case and advising on liability.

Qualifications & Awards

Bar Professional Training Course (Outstanding), BPP University

Graduate Diploma in Law (Distinction), BPP University

BA, English Language and Literature, University of Oxford

Lord Justice Holker Award, Gray's Inn

GDL Scholarship, Gray's Inn

Baroness Cohen Scholarship, BPP University

Publications

Case Report: Ellis v Kelly [2018] EWHC 2031 (QB), Personal Injury Law Journal, October 2018

'The demise of doctor-knows-best', Gray's Inn Student Law Journal, 2016