

12

King's Bench Walk

David Green

Call: 2015
green@12kbw.co.uk

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Industrial Disease, International & Travel, Employment & Discrimination, Military Claims, Aviation

David is a specialist employment and personal injury barrister. He represents Claimants and Defendants in claims arising from all aspects of these areas of practice.

In personal injury David has a particular specialism and expertise in industrial disease (including asbestos disease), international disputes, and military claims.

In employment David specializes in whistleblowing claims as well as all aspects of discrimination (particularly pregnancy and maternity discrimination). He sits on the Equality and Human Rights Commission's panel of counsel.

International & Travel

David has broad experience advising and representing clients in international personal injury and employment cases. His practice includes cases involving:

- Jurisdictional issues, including under the Brussels Convention
- Choice of law, including the Rome II Convention
- The Package Travel Regulations
- Accidents at sea and the Athens Convention
- Accidents during air carriage and the Montreal Convention

He is a contributor to the "Accidents Abroad" section of Butterworths Personal Injury Law Service (BPILS) and to the 12KBW International and Travel Law blog.

Qualifications & Awards

BPTC, City Law School: outstanding

GDL, City Law School: distinction

BA (Hons), MA, Philosophy, Politics and Economics, Lincoln College, Oxford University

Exhibition and Duke of Edinburgh Scholar, Inner Temple

Former teaching fellow in contract law at SOAS, University of London

Appointments & Memberships

David is a member of PIBA, PEOPIL, ELA, ELBA and the Industrial Law Society.

12

King's Bench Walk

David is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts (FRSA).

He is also a foundation governor of a large state secondary school in Lewisham.