AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Employment & Discrimination, Personal Injury, Clinical Negligence, Professional Negligence, Credit Hire, International & Travel, Inquests, Fraud, Arbitration, Mediation, Costs

Jeremy joined chambers as a tenant in 2018. He accepts instructions in all areas of chambers practice with an interest in employment and discrimination, personal injury, and clinical and professional negligence.

He has experience across a broad range of commercial and arbitration, regulatory and fraud work.

Owing to previous employment at a City law firm, he has a detailed knowledge of civil procedure and costs.

Commercial & Arbitration

Jeremy has first-hand experience assisting across a range of contentious commercial matters: partnership/LLP, shareholder disputes, misrepresentation, civil fraud, breach of warranty, agency and distribution, directors' duties, worldwide freezing orders and search orders.

He is an experienced user of e-disclosure platforms (including Relativity) and has been actively involved in forensic IT investigation and recovery exercises as part of high-value Commercial, Mercantile Court and TCC litigation.

Jeremy has worked on high-value international commercial arbitrations (sitting at the IDRC, London) involving parties from multiple jurisdictions, gaining valuable experience in both substantive issues of distribution agreements, proceedings under the LCIA rules, and section 68 references.

He has, for the past few years and by invitation, sat as a Moot-Arbitrator for one of the UK pre-moots forming part of the prestigious Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Mooting competition held annually in Vienna.
