AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Employment & Discrimination, Clinical Negligence, International & Travel, Insurance, Product Liability, Inquests, Aviation

Joel specialises in personal injury, employment law and clinical negligence. He has extensive experience of working at the interface of personal injury and employment, in particular in the areas of workplace stress and harassment. He is regularly instructed by some of the leading claimant and defendant solicitors. In addition he is instructed by public authorities and Trade Unions.

Joel regularly provides lectures on a variety of employment and personal injury areas, including the operation of the Johnson exclusion area, a difficult and complex subject affecting both personal injury and employment litigation.

Outside the law Joel's interests include classical music, cinema and Wycombe Wanderers FC.

Personal Injury

Joel specialises in high-value and complex personal injury work, acting for both Claimant and Defendant.

Brain injury (both traumatic and subtle) – Joel has acted for a number of clients over the past year where capacity was in issue. When acting on behalf of Claimants significant settlements have been achieved at JSMs including settlements into seven figures. At the approval hearing in relation to a substantial settlement for a brain-injured client, the DCJ approving the settlement described Joel's advice as one of the clearest and most helpful that he had ever seen.

Other catastrophic injury and fatal accidents – Joel is currently involved in tetraplegia and other spinal injury cases, and has settled a number of fatal accident claims at JSMs over the past year. Joel recently acted for the family of one of the victims of the Croydon tram crash. A substantial settlement was obtained at JSM.

Workplace stress and harassment – Joel continued to receive instructions to act for and against high-profile institutions and companies. He has achieved significant settlements for Claimants at JSMs and in mediation, including cases involving concurrent employment tribunal and personal injuries litigation. Over the past year he has regularly been instructed by Defendant public bodies at all stages of the litigation up to and including JSMs.

Chronic pain/complex regional pain syndrome – Joel continues to be regularly instructed in chronic pain cases by both Claimant and Defendant solicitors.

In addition Joel does of course continue to practice in employers' liability and public liability work generally as well as in RTAs; he has appeared at all levels from county court to Court of Appeal. He is experienced in costs management and is happy to accept instructions from both Claimant and Defendant solicitors to undertake all aspects of CCMCs.

Employment & Discrimination

Joel regularly appears in the Employment Appeal Tribunal, and had acted in many high profile cases on behalf of both Claimants and Respondents. He has extensive experience of multi-day complex cases in the tribunals.

A major part of his practice over the past 18 months has comprised the representation of the successful Claimant in Heslop v Oxford Said Business School Ltd, one of the largest whistleblowing claims of recent years. Following appearances for the Claimant on his own account in the employment tribunal at both the liability and remedy hearings, the claim was settled on a confidential basis subsequent to further success for the Claimant in the EAT where Joel was led by Jane Mulcahy QC – see “Cases”.

Other EAT appearances over the past few years include acting on a pro bono basis for the Appellant in Enamejewa v British Gas Trading Ltd (strike out) and representing the Appellant in G4S Cash Solutions (UK) Ltd v Powell (reasonable adjustments) – see “Cases”..

Joel has wide experience in all types of discrimination work (including harassment), cases involving TUPE, collective and individual redundancies, protected disclosure, working time cases, agency workers, breach of confidence and, of course, unfair dismissal.

He is a member of the EAT's ELAAS scheme.

Clinical Negligence

Joel's experience in clinical negligence lies exclusively in acting for Claimants. He has undertaken a wide range of clinical negligence work, including claims against cosmetic surgeons, physiotherapists and dentists as well as GPs and NHS hospital trusts. His experience in this area extends to inquests. Recent successes include obtaining a seven figure settlement sum in a catastrophic above-knee amputation case where liability and causation were in dispute (on his own account) and an eight figure settlement sum in a tetraplegia claim (led by William Featherby QC).

International & Travel

Joel acts frequently for cabin crew in personal injury claims against UK-based international airlines. In addition he has experience of passenger claims for personal injury under the Montreal Convention. In the last year he acted for the successful Claimant, a member of cabin crew, in the trial of a personal injuries claim against a well-known airline arising out of the negligent piloting of the plane on landing.

Insurance

Joel's experience in this area includes:

- Motor insurance – declaration proceedings and related litigation
- Permanent health insurance – policy wording disputes

Product Liability

Joel has represented Claimants in product liability personal injury litigation, including in recent years claims arising out of defective fireworks, ladders and bicycles

Inquests

Joel appears regularly on multi-day inquests in the fields of both personal injury and clinical negligence

Aviation

Joel frequently acts in cabin crew and passenger claims for personal injury under the Montreal Convention.
