AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Industrial Disease, International & Travel, Clinical Negligence, Inquests, Professional Negligence

John-Paul practices in all aspects of Personal Injury law. He has particular interest and expertise in Asbestos Litigation, International and Travel litigation, Clinical Negligence, and Inquests. He undertakes high value work. He is approachable and thorough. John-Paul enjoys working as part of a team with his instructing solicitor and has a reputation for establishing a good rapport with lay and professional clients..

In relation to asbestos claims he is instructed by most, if not all, well-regarded claimant firms with an established asbestos team. He is ranked in Chambers and Partners and the Legal 500. Many of the claims John-Paul is instructed in involve difficult issues such as secondary exposure, low-level exposure, lung cancer claims, and difficult quantum issues such as recovery of immunotherapy costs or service claims in the lost years. His opponent is often a silk. Recent reported cases include: Witham v Steve Hill Ltd [2020] EWHC 299 (QB) (quantum in a fatal case, led by Steven Snowden QC); Helm v Kenyon & Sons Ltd v Somewatch Ltd [2019] EWHC 1108 (QB) (appeal from show cause); Cary v Vauxhall Motors Ltd [2019] EWHC 238 (QB) (liability for secondary exposure of wife); Mark v Universal Coatings and Services Ltd v Barrier Ltd [2018] EWHC 3206 (QB) (procedural issues in a silicosis case and led by Ronald Walker QC); Stacey (Executrix of the Estate of Mr Perry) v Triplex Safety Glass Company Ltd [2017] EWHC 1945 (QB) (causation and quantification).

John-Paul's expertise in International and Travel litigation is reflected by his ranking in the Legal 500 for Travel Law including Jurisdictional issues. He brings experience and knowledge to private international law matters, which typically involve the consideration and application of Rome II, Brussels recast, the doctrine of forum conveniens and service of the claim form out of the jurisdiction. John-Paul also has a wealth of experience in relation to claims arising from the Package Holiday Regulations and international conventions such as the Athens and Montreal Convention. He is also an editor of the International & Travel Law blog. As a result of his Spanish language skills John-Paul is often instructed in Spanish cases.

John-Paul's clinical negligence work is high value and he receives instructions from many well-respected firms. He is ranked in the Legal 500 for his clinical negligence work. He enjoys the medical and scientific aspect of such matters and works closely with his instructing solicitors and experts. He has experience of cases involving birth injury, amputation, unnecessary and negligent surgery, delayed diagnosis, cosmetic surgery, fatal cases, disclosure of risk and the negligent administration of clinical drugs. He is an editor of the Clinical Negligence Law blog.

John-Paul regularly acts for bereaved families, and occasionally acts for other interested parties, at Inquests. John-Paul has particular interest and expertise in Article 2 ECHR enhanced Inquests. Invariably John-Paul is instructed in civil proceedings following the Inquest. He has acted in high profile Inquests which have received significant press attention such as the Inquest touching the death of Toni Speck a death in police custody where the deceased was detained under the Mental Health Act 1983; the Inquest touching the death of Graham Coker a death following surgery for oesophageal cancer where there were found to have been multiple failings by the NHS Trust; the Inquest touching the death of Jodie White-Charles where a young mother died of sickle cell complications as a result of Trust failures.

Personal Injury

John-Paul practices in all aspects of Personal Injury law and receives instructions from respected national firms representing both claimants and defendant insurers. He undertakes high value claims and fatal accident claims.

He has vast experience and expertise in relation to road traffic claims, employer's liability and public liability matters. He has an excellent understanding of post Enterprise Act employer's liability claims having lectured and written about the subject.

John-Paul is instructed in claims of the utmost severity. For example, John-Paul has experience of amputation claims, claims requiring the involvement of the Court of Protection because of severe brain injury, claims where periodical payments are required and fatal accident claims.

John-Paul has significant expertise is in relation to amputation cases, where he has a good knowledge of prosthetics and other relevant experts, brain injury where he has developed a good working relationship with neurosurgeons, neuropsychologists and neuropsychiatrists and 'pain cases' involving fibromyalgia, CRPS, neuropathic pain, psychiatric and psychological disorders.

Recent reported cases include Irani v Duchon [2019] EWCA Civ 1846 a case arising from an RTA where causation and quantification were in issue for an Indian national who faced deportation as a consequence of the negligence. The Claimant was award in excess of £400k.
