AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, International & Travel, Industrial Disease,
Costs, Common Law

Lois is known for her approachable style and tenacious advocacy. Her ability to think effectively and communicate on her feet has recently been recognised by her being one of the youngest ever appointed Recorders at age 35.

Away from Law Lois has a keen interest in travel, languages, when she isn't marshalling her trio of sons.

She speaks French after her time living and studying in Strasbourg along with basic Spanish and Japanese.

Before coming to the Bar Lois Taught English Language Oral Communication in Osaka, Japan.

Costs

---

Lois is regularly instructed in detailed assessment proceedings, costs applications and cases involving costs arguments relating to claims falling out of the MOJ portal.

Lois has experience of costs appeals, including a successful appeal against the judge's tariff-based approach to the assessment of costs on the standard basis following a fast track trial.

Having been an employment practitioner Lois is properly equipped to handle detailed assessment proceedings that relate to costs orders from the employment tribunal.
