AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Industrial Disease, Clinical Negligence, Fraud, Professional Negligence, Costs, Credit Hire, Insurance, Abuse, Product Liability, Inquests, Property

Niall is recognised as a leading junior in personal injury work in the current edition of Chambers & Partners, where he is described as “an impressive junior with a growing profile at the Personal Injury Bar” with “experience handling catastrophic and fatal injury claims on behalf of both defendants and claimants”, and in the current edition of the Legal 500 which notes that he “provides practical advice on complex problems”. He is also ranked as a leading junior (tier 1) in the current edition of the Legal 500 in Industrial Disease and in Insurance Fraud.

Niall specialises in high value and complex personal injury and clinical negligence work, acting for claimants and defendants. He frequently acts in cases valued in excess of £1m. He has a large and loyal client base, and receives instructions from leading solicitors, major insurers, the MIB, central government, and local authorities.

His practice focuses on:

- fatalities and injuries of the utmost severity;
- serious spinal damage, including tetraplegia;
- brain injury cases, including those characterised as subtle in nature;
- all forms of pain syndromes, including chronic pain syndrome, complex regional pain syndrome, fibromyalgia and somatoform disorders;
- complex orthopaedic and amputation cases;
- psychiatric conditions; and
- intentional torts including historic abuse.

Niall has an excellent track record at trials, joint settlement meetings and mediations.

He also has considerable appellate experience. He appeared in the Supreme Court (led) for the successful appellant in Knauer v Ministry of Justice [2016] UKSC 9, an important case on the quantification of future losses in fatal claims. He appeared in the Court of Appeal (unled) for the successful respondent in Scott v Gavigan [2016] All ER (D) 35 (Jun), a case concerning issues of foreseeability and legal causation in road traffic accidents.

Niall is a member of the Attorney General's C Panel of Junior Counsel to the Crown, a select group of barristers who undertake civil work on behalf of central government departments.

Niall usually acts unled, but he is also comfortable acting as part of a litigation team and is frequently led by prominent personal injury and clinical negligence silks. Whilst adopting a thorough and rigorous approach to cases, Niall prides himself on being practical and approachable.

Costs

Niall is knowledgeable and skilled in all aspects of contentious costs litigation. He regularly advises on costs issues and appears at detailed assessments.

Niall has represented claimants and defendants at numerous costs and case management conferences, and he is very experienced in the kinds of arguments that secure positive results at these hearings. Judicial approaches to CCMCs vary widely, and ensuring a good outcome can often affect the future course of the litigation.
