AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Abuse, Military Claims, International & Travel, Criminal Injuries Compensation, Industrial Disease, Human Rights, Public Authority Liability, Insurance, Fraud, Group Litigation

Nina acts for claimants and defendants across all Chambers' practice areas. She specialises in claims arising out of sexual and physical assaults; military claims; international and group litigation; and human rights aspects of personal injury law. She has been instructed in high-profile litigation in these fields, including in:

- X v Kuoni [2019] UKSC 37 (led by William Audland QC): a claim brought under the 1992 Package Travel Regulations for sexual assaults committed by a hotel employee in Sri Lanka. The case has been referred by the Supreme Court to the CJEU for a preliminary ruling on a point of European law.
- Alseran & Others v Ministry of Defence [2017] EWHC 3289 (QB) [2018] 3 W.L.R. 95 (led by Richard Hermer QC and Harry Steinberg QC): claims against the MoD brought by Iraqi civilians who allege that they were assaulted and unlawfully detained by UK military personnel during the invasion of Iraq in 2003.

Given her areas of specialism, Nina has particular experience of claims for psychiatric injury and cases where limitation is in issue. She is co-author of Personal Injury Limitation Law, Bloomsbury (2020).

Before coming to the Bar, Nina worked on torture and abuse cases in the international and group claims department of Leigh Day & Co Solicitors; at the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia in the Netherlands; as well as at JUSTICE; Liberty; and the Legal Resources Centre in Durban, South Africa.

Public Authority Liability

Nina has particular experience of defending local authorities at trial in claims brought in negligence and/or under the Occupiers Liability Act 1957, the Highways Act 1980 and the Defective Premises Act 1972. Much of her work in this area derives from repeat instructions.

Nina is also often instructed for claimants and defendants in claims against local authorities arising out of sexual and physical abuse, including failure to remove cases (as to which see further the "abuse" section of her profile).
