AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Industrial Disease, Clinical Negligence, International & Travel, Fraud

Patrick is recognised as a leading junior in personal injury work by the Legal 500, its most recent edition describing him as “ a superb advocate who is highly intelligent”. In Chambers & Partners he is described as “definitely the counsel you want on your side”.

He has particular expertise in mesothelioma claims, cross-border and foreign jurisdictional claims, MIB related matters, and head injury cases. He specializes in the more complex aspects of causation in clinical negligence. Many of his cases involve cyclists and other sporting activities. Most of his claims involve catastrophic injuries. He also has extensive experience in defending fraudulent claims.

He is on the committee of the London Common Law and Commercial Bar Association; and is also a member of the Northern Irish Bar.

He accepts claims on a CFA basis and undertakes pro bono work where appropriate.

Patrick also runs a charity which funds Research Fellowships at the Royal Marsden Hospital (lecare.org).

Fraud

Patrick's main areas of expertise are:

- Fraudulent claims arising from invented, staged or induced road traffic accidents
- Fraud rings
- Invented or exaggerated accidents at work
- Attempted fraud against public authorities
- Credit hire
- Low-velocity impact claims
- Fraudulent misrepresentation
- Insurance coverage

Patrick has been involved in defending numerous high-profile and extensive fraud-rings including those linked to organized crime.

He is expert in defending claims involving exaggerated claims of personal injury and/or credit hire.
