

Sarah Beslee

Call: 2006
beslee@12kbw.co.uk

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Public Authority Liability, Credit Hire, Insurance

Sarah is highly experienced in all aspects of personal injury law, from cases involving complex orthopaedic and psychiatric injuries to cases involving fraud. She has particular expertise in public authority liability, Animals Act 1971 cases (including equine cases) and credit hire. She regularly acts for Defendants in cases involving fraud / fundamental dishonesty.

Sarah has been a visiting academic tutor at King's College, London.

Credit Hire

Sarah has extensive experience acting for Defendants in high-value credit hire cases. She often advises and drafts Counter-Schedules as well as Part 18 Requests and has considerable trial experience.

Sarah successfully represented the Defendant at first instance in the cases of Singh v Yaquibi [2013] EQCA Civ 23 and Copley v Lawn [2009] EWCA Civ 580

Sarah provides talks to insurers and solicitors on all aspects of credit hire.

Qualifications & Awards

LLB Law, (First Class Hons) King's College, London

BVC, Inns of Court School of Law (Very competent)

Harmsworth Scholar (Middle Temple, 2005)

Appointments & Memberships

Middle Temple

Personal Injuries Bar Association