

Sarah Beslee

Call: 2006
beslee@12kbw.co.uk

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Public Authority Liability, Credit Hire, Insurance

Sarah is highly experienced in all aspects of personal injury law, from cases involving complex orthopaedic and psychiatric injuries to cases involving fraud. She has particular expertise in public authority liability, Animals Act 1971 cases (including equine cases) and credit hire. She regularly acts for Defendants in cases involving fraud / fundamental dishonesty.

Sarah has been a visiting academic tutor at King's College, London.

Fraud

Sarah is regularly instructed in cases concerning allegations of fraud or fundamental dishonesty. She regularly advises on evidence and tactics, drafts pleadings and appears in trials where fraud is alleged or suspected.

Qualifications & Awards

LLB Law, (First Class Hons) King's College, London

BVC, Inns of Court School of Law (Very competent)

Harmsworth Scholar (Middle Temple, 2005)

Appointments & Memberships

Middle Temple

Personal Injuries Bar Association