AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Personal Injury, Clinical Negligence, Inquests, Sport, Public Authority Liability, Health & Safety, Credit Hire, Costs

Ted accepts instructions across all of 12KBW's core areas. He specialises in personal injury, fundamental dishonesty, fatal accidents, sports law, costs and inquests.

Ted is an extremely experienced advocate and continues to appear in Court multiple times a week. In addition to a busy Court diary, Ted's paperwork practice includes advising and pleading in high value claims for both Claimants and Defendants in both the County and High Court.

Away from Chambers, Ted has had several articles published in national newspapers, presented his own radio shows and volunteered both abroad and in the UK with human rights and legal charities.

Sports law

Arising out of a keen personal passion for sport, Ted has a growing practice in sports injuries. He recently successfully acted for a child in a ski accident claim, and his current claims include a golfer who was blinded on the course, and a footballer who sustained career altering injuries during a match.

He is keen to develop this area further, and accepts instructions from both Claimants and Defendants. Ted is happy to accept instructions on a CFA basis.
